DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4,6-7 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yuhasz (5009430).

Yuhasz teaches a game having a game board (10), a track with task spaces (22), a puzzle creation region (central area) with attachment means for attaching game pieces (23), a die as random device (2:20-21), and at least two divisions (continents on map). Yuhasz further teaches a method of playing moving on track, following instruction of picking a game piece and placing on puzzle area (2:24-30) for winning game (5:12-15).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 5 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yuhasz in view of Graham (6398221).

Yuhasz teaches all limitations except that it does not teach a 3-dimensional puzzle area.

Graham teaches a 3-dimensional puzzle area.

Art Unit: 3711

In order to make the game more challenging to potential players, it would have been obvious to modify game area to include 3-dimensional puzzle.

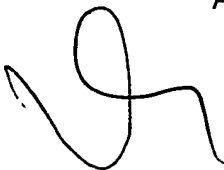

One of ordinary skill in art at the time the invention was made would have suggested providing 3-dimensional puzzle to make the game attractive to potential players.
